

I am opposed to the broadcast flag. Why change the current fair use for TV broadcasts. I thought the issue was decided when the VCR was introduced to the general public. Please continue to allow the public to record and store digital data with the ease and use as we currently record and store analog data.